

The Brooklyn Bureau of Community Service, founded in 1866, is one of Brooklyn's oldest and largest not-for-profit non-sectarian social service agencies.

Our mission is to empower individuals to achieve greater economic self-sufficiency and more rewarding participation in the community through programs that nurture and strengthen families, protect children, and enable individuals with disabilities to achieve their full potential.

Litigating your own case in federal court
can be very stressful.

The Brooklyn Bureau
can provide
free counseling
to litigants who are representing themselves in cases in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York.

This is a voluntary program.

The Brooklyn Bureau
does not provide legal advice
or legal representation, but the services
it offers to you
and your family
can help you
move forward
in your life.

The Brooklyn Bureau of Community Service was founded in 1866 to serve the most vulnerable and most disadvantaged members of our community. Each year, more than 11,000 children, families, adolescents and adults participate in Brooklyn Bureau programs.

Regardless of the complications of their lives or the severity of their circumstances, the Brooklyn Bureau provides a warm welcome to the people who participate in its programs.
